Multimedia FAQs

1. How does my phone's Multimedia Service differ from video messaging?

   Multimedia Service lets you access high-quality video and audio clips provided by external sources. Video messaging lets you capture, upload and share videos that you personally create with your phone's built-in camcorder.

2. Will I know if I'm receiving an incoming call while I'm viewing or listening to an audio clip?

   No. All incoming calls will roll into voicemail while you are playing a clip. If the caller leaves a voicemail, the voicemail icon will appear on the screen.

3. How long are the clips? Will I know the estimated time it will take to play the clip prior to accessing it?

   Once you have selected a channel, you will see a listing of the available clips, with the clip's length appearing after the clip's title. In general, a clip's duration will depend on the story or content being provided, and can be fairly short or as long as a few minutes.

4. Can I access a multimedia clip wherever I am, as long as I have my phone?

   As long as you are on the home network, you will have access to the audio and video clips.

Note: Multimedia Service does not work where service is unavailable.

5. How can I easily access a channel without having to scroll through all the channels?

   Each channel will have a number to the left of it. You can simply press this number to quickly access the clips located within that channel.

Tip: When entering the specific channel number, channels 01 - 09 do not require you to enter a "0." For example, to access channel "07," just press the "7" key.

6. What does it mean when the video pauses and I see the word "loading" at the bottom of the screen?
This happens when the media player is in the process of loading the data necessary to play the clip. It typically occurs when there is heavy traffic on the network.

7. If I place my stereo headphones on and insert them into the phone's headset jack, can I close the flip while I am playing an audio (or video) clip without interrupting the clip?
Yes. When you insert your stereo headset into the phone's headset jack, the phone automatically goes into "headset mode," allowing you to close the flip and continue playing the clip (likewise, if your phone is in "headset mode," a phone call will not become disconnected by closing the flip).

8. Can I surf to a different channel while I am playing a clip?
Yes. While you are playing a clip, you can use the up and down navigation keys to surf to a different channel. A small pop-up screen will appear that tells you which channel you are watching as well as other channels you have access to. Use the navigation key to scroll through the different channels. Once you find a channel that you want to watch, scroll to it and press 🔘 (or simply wait approximately three seconds) and the channel will begin loading.

15. Safety Guidelines

Maintaining Your Phone's Peak Performance

▶ Try not to hold, bend, or twist the phone's antenna.

▶ Don't use the phone if the antenna is damaged.

▶ Avoid exposing your phone and accessories to rain or liquid spills. If your phone does get wet, turn the power off and immediately remove the battery.

Using Your Phone While Driving

Talking on your phone while driving (or operating the phone without a hands-free device) is prohibited in some jurisdictions. Laws vary as to specific restrictions.

▶ Let the person you are speaking to know you are driving; if necessary, suspend the call in heavy traffic or hazardous weather conditions.

▶ Do not take notes or look up phone numbers while driving.

Following Safety Guidelines

To operate your phone safely and efficiently, always follow any special regulations in a given area. Turn your phone off in areas where use is forbidden or when it may cause interference or danger.

Using Your Phone Near Other Electronic Devices

Most modern electronic equipment is shielded from radiofrequency (RF) signals. However, RF signals from wireless phones may affect inadequately shielded electronic equipment.

RF signals may affect improperly installed or inadequately shielded electronic operating systems and/or entertainment systems in motor vehicles. Check with the manufacturer or their representative to determine if these systems are adequately shielded from external RF signals. Also check with the manufacturer regarding any equipment that has been added to your vehicle.

Consult the manufacturer of any personal medical devices, such as pacemakers and hearing aids, to determine if they are adequately shielded from external RF signals.

Note: Always turn off the phone in health care facilities and request permission before using the phone near medical equipment.

Turning Off Your Phone Before Flying

Turn off your phone or set your phone to Airplane mode before boarding any aircraft. To prevent possible interference with aircraft systems, Transport Canada regulations require you to have permission from a crew member to use your phone while the plane is on the ground.

Turning Off Your Phone in Dangerous Areas

To avoid interfering with blasting operations, turn your phone off when in a blasting area or in other areas with signs indicating two-way radios should be turned off. Construction crews often use remote-control RF devices to set off explosives.

Turn your phone off when you're in any area that has a potentially explosive atmosphere. Although it's rare, your phone and accessories could generate sparks. Sparks can cause an explosion or fire, resulting in bodily injury or even death. These areas are often, but not always, clearly marked. They include:

► Any area where it is very humid and with inflammables.

► Fueling areas such as gas stations.

► Below deck on boats.

► Fuel or chemical transfer or storage facilities.

► Areas where the air contains chemicals or particles such as grain, dust, or metal powders.

► Any other area where you would normally be advised to turn off your vehicle's engine.

Note: Never transport or store flammable gas, liquid or explosives in the compartment of your vehicle that contains your phone or accessories.

Restricting Children's Access to Your Phone

Your phone is not a toy. Do not allow children to play with it as they could hurt themselves and others, damage the phone or make calls that increase your telephone bill.

Protecting Your Battery

The guidelines listed below help you get the most out of your battery's performance.

► Use only approved batteries and chargers. These chargers are designed to maximize battery life. Using other batteries or chargers voids your warranty and may cause damage.

► In order to avoid damage, charge the battery only in temperatures that range from 0º C to 45º C (32º F to 113º F).

► Don't store the battery in a high humidity environment.

► Don't use the battery charger in direct sunlight or in high humidity areas, such as the bathroom.

► Never dispose of the battery by incineration.

► Keep the metal contacts on top of the battery clean.

► Don't attempt to disassemble or short-circuit the battery.

► Don't store the battery in high temperature areas for long periods of time. It's best to follow these storage rules:

> Less than one month:
> -20º C to 60º C (-4º F to 140º F)

> More than one month:
> -20º C to 45º C (-4º F to 113º F)

Disposal of Lithium Ion (Li-Ion) Batteries

For safe disposal options of your Li-Ion batteries, please ensure that disposal of this in accordance with law and regulation.

▶ Do not dispose of the battery in fire; the cell may explode.

▶ Do not open or puncture the battery; the released electrolyte is corrosive and may cause damage to the eyes and skin.

Special Note: Be sure to dispose of your battery properly. In some areas, the disposal of batteries in household or business trash may be prohibited.

Note: For safety, do not handle a damaged or leaking Li-Ion battery.

Cautions

Any changes or modifications to your phone not expressly approved in this document could void your warranty for this equipment and void your authority to operate this equipment. Only use approved batteries, antennas and chargers. The use of any unauthorized accessories may be dangerous and void the phone warranty if said accessories cause damage or a defect to the phone.

Although your phone is quite sturdy, it is a complex piece of equipment and can be broken. Avoid dropping, hitting, bending or sitting on it.
